

CITY CLUB TO HAVE FAMILY PARTY TODAY

IT WAS A MERRY CHRISTMAS in the household of Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Edwin Denby. The youngsters, Mary and Edwin, Jr., had the biggest tree obtainable, and the Secretary, himself, played Santa Claus for his children. This is the second Christmas in Washington for the small Denbys.

—International.

AT HOME TODAY to the families of members, the City Club is planning a regular Christmas party. One of the features of the program will be an old-fashioned Christmas tree erected in the ballroom of the club.

—Herald Staff Photo.

IN REAL LIFE as well as "reel" life, Jenks Harris plays the role of bandit, according to the California police. Harris, known to film fans as the "movie" bandit, is said by the police to be chief of a gang of bank robbers.

VISITING her mother for the winter, Miss Elizabeth Blood, of Asheville, N. C., is making a host of friends in Washington. She is the daughter of Mrs. William Blood, of 1726 L street northwest.

—Harris & Ewing.

CO-EDS at Mt. Holyoke College were rudely awakened from their slumber last week by a fire that destroyed Rockefeller Hall, the college dormitory. The hall, the gift of John D. Rockefeller, was originally opened in 1897.

—Wire World Photos.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS was provided several thousand poor kiddies of New York by the New York American Christmas Fund. Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, wife of the publisher, is photographed with one of the happy youngsters at the party.

—International.

AN AUTHORESS of ability is Mrs. Goring Bliss, whose fantasy, "Once Punch Agrees With Judy," will be presented at the Playhouse Friday and Saturday to aid the Juvenile Protective Association.

—Harris & Ewing.

FOUR TIMES WED. J. Stanley Holbrook, of Los Angeles, Cal., seems determined to break the matrimonial record for the century. Holbrook is only twenty-six, but he is preparing for his fifth venture into realms of bliss.

—International.

BOTTLE-FED, this tiny deer, born in the Bronx (N. Y.) Zoological Gardens, does not seem to miss his mother's care. The youngster was deserted by his unnatural parent at birth and left to the tender mercies of a keeper.

—P. & A. Photos.

UNLESS HE WEDS within one year, Frank Donovan, a Los Angeles street car conductor, will lose a fortune of $100,000, willed him by his grandmother, in Delaware. Donovan says he expects to win the inheritance.

—International.

WINNING HIS FIGHT. "Wally" Reid, film star, said to be suffering from the use of drugs, took a turn for the better on Christmas Day. "Wally" at first thought to be on the verge of death, will recover, according to his physicians.

—International.

OLD DOBBIN in Truckee, Cal., is safe even where the snow piles in drifts many feet deep, for his slippery hoofs are protected by snow-shoes made especially for him. The majority of motion pictures featuring Northern scenes are made in Truckee.

—Underwood & Underwood.

HEROES OF THE AIR. Capt. St. Clair Streett, American aviator, who recently flew from New York to Nome, Alaska, and Sir Keith Smith, English birdman, knighted for his London-to-Australia flight, meet for the first time in Washington to discuss a round-the-world flight. Left to right: John Oliver La Gorce, vice president of the National Geographic Society; Capt. St. Clair Streett; Sir Keith Smith, and Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, president of the society.

—Underwood & Underwood.